WAR SUMMARY

The Russian offensive is still in full swing in Bukovina, where the advance of General Brusiloff's forces is apparently being little impeded by the Austrians. The town of Kut, across the Galician border at the foot of the Carpathians, has been occupied and virtually all the important towns in the crownland now are in Russian possession.

To the north, German troops in increasing numbers are reported to be coming to the aid of the Austrians and the Russians are being forced to fight to hold the ground they have already won. Heavy fighting is in progress all along the line from northern Galicia well to the northwest of Lutsk, but neither side is claiming material progress.

Definite and important gains have been scored by the Germans on the western front at Verdun. Capturing the Thiaumont fortified position north of the city, they pushed on and captured a part of the village of Fleury. Little more than three miles from Verdun but were soon ejected from the village by counter attacks, according to the French story. The French war office makes the further claim that much of the ground taken by the Germans was recaptured but admits that the crown prince's forces still are in possession of the Thiaumont work.

The Italians have made further advances in the Trentino region, pushing forward in the Passubio section while elsewhere they have withstood successfully attacks by the Austrians. Constantinople reports an important success in Turkish Armenia, where the Russians were driven from positions more than a mile in width on a mountain ridge north of the Orontes River.

On the Persian front of Mesopotamia, the Russians were cleared from Paektia Pass and pursued by the Turks some ten miles to the eastward.

RUSSIANS BLOCKED AT KUTY, GALICIA

(By Review Leased Wire)
VIENNA, via London, June 24.—An Austro-Hungarian encircling advance has pressed the Russians over to Kut (Galicia), according to the Austrian official statement issued today. In Volynia the Austro-German forces are disputing the ground fought by foot north of Lipa river, north-east of Gortchov, and west and north-west of Torchin, where all the Russian counter attacks have been frustrated.
